Unto the good gentles of the Outlands, Our Ruling Nobles, Our Peers and Our Kingdom Officers, We send glad tidings and good news this October day.

While the rumors of His Majesties debilitating decline has been greatly exaggerated, We are pleased to announce that Our Heirs have been found and secured under their Princely Coronets.

This past month We had the opportunity to enjoy the hospitality of Dragonsspine and all Our Landless Nobles at Baron's War. The weather was memorable, as it did not rain!!!! Congratulations Master Rhys, being elevated to the Ancient and Honorable Order of the Laurel and to Sir Arland for receiving the Accolade of Knighthood.

During the past month, We have had many opportunities to see the good works of the Outlands. The largess We gave to the other Kingdoms of the Knowne World at Pennsic was of the highest quality. We want to thank all of those that contributed their time, energy, and talent to the making of these many gifts to Our Cousins. Huzzah! We know they were most impressed as well. Our special thanks to Mistress Joella for coordinating the gathering of these items.

We particularly want to thank those that aided us at a very wet Pennsic, Mistress Brianna, Baron Lambert, Mistress Claudia, and others whom were always there, working to ensure both Our comfort and that the Kingdom was well represented.

While at Pennsic, We were privileged to wear the new Crowns crafted by Master Rhys and his talented apprentices. These new additions to Our regalia are most welcome and allowed the Kingdom to shine in many ways.

We also want to thank the Shire of Rio de Las Animas Perdidas for a great Silver Pass event. We did, as always, enjoy ourselves. The camaraderie shown despite inclement weather was a joy to behold.

The distant clamor of war now appears to threaten Our borders. Our ancient friends and foes, growing weary of planting and harvesting, now seem bent on planning strife and woe. While no Kingdom seeks war, the Outlands has never shirked its duties. We ask that Our light and heavy fighters to begin their training, that Our archers diligently practice their skills, that Our artisans prepare the necessary items for a War, and finally, that Our service Orders being the logistical preparations that are needed.

When We hear of the final words from Our Cousins, these will be presented as rapidly as possible by Our War Council. We also thank those on the War Council for their continuous preparations during Our times of peace.

While We grow more weary from the burden of the Crown, Our hearts continue to soar by the grace, beauty and kindness We continue to both witness and receive.

Yours, In Service to the Great Kingdom of the Outlands,

Giovanni Cainnleach

Twenty-seven years have we of this fine College dedicated ourselves to the most honorable pursuits of our Patron Saint. Many great endeavors have we undertaken in our sacred quest for the finest Wine, Women, and Song. Upon the Sixteenth Day of October we welcome all good gentles to celebrate with us the Feast Day of Saint Golias, and to share the fruits of our labors.

The Celebration will commence at 10:00 am on the New Mexico Tech Athletics Field with a game tourney, since it was ever Saint Golias' duty to spread the knowledge of dice, cards, and other such challenges of wit and skill. Following the merriment, fierce combat shall commence to determine the new Defender of Saint Golias, as well as our Patron Saint's First Blade.

The evening would not be complete without feast and frolic, and both shall be had at the Socorro Holiday Inn Express Convention Center (1100 N. California Street, directions will be available during the day).

Alas, our feast, frolic, and tourney sites are dry; therefore, the most honorable pursuits of Saint Golias will be heartily celebrated at the after-revel following (site to be announced at the feast).

To all good gentles who come by these letters, greetings.
The kids are waiting! Are you ready?

The time is fast approaching for al-Barran's annual Toys for Tots Tournament. On Sunday, November 21st, the annual Toys for Tots Tournament will be held at Bataan Memorial Park, in al-Barran. There will be a Heavy weapons Tournament, a Rapier tournament, food for all, and prizes for the tournament victors. The event will begin at 9:00 am and continue till 4:00 pm. Besides the Martial activities, there will be a prize for the most toys gathered by an individual and by a group.

The toys raised are going to go to kids who might not have much of a Holiday, due to whatever reason. These toys go to kids in the local area, and they do appreciate the effort, so lets get going and get those toys for the kids.

On Saturday, November 20th, al-Barran will be holding an Arts and Sciences Collegium, Baronial A&S Champion competition, and court dance ball from 9am to 10pm. There will be several tracks of A&S classes, including performing arts, fiber arts, scribal arts, and much, much more from 9am to 5pm. A donation lunch will be available and there will be entertainment during lunch. The A&S competition for the new A&S Champion for al-Barran will be held during the day using a tri-fold format to display for this competition.
You must have a subscription to the Shaft in order to enter and Shaft subscriptions may be purchased at this event. Documentation for the competition is not required but recommended. There will also be supervised activities for the children and youth throughout the collegium, 9am to 5pm.

Join us as we celebrate good friends, good food and good song. Gather in beautiful al-Barran as we enjoy Christmas in the Time of the Troubadours. The hall is decorated with greenery, the Yule log burns, carols waft through the air, the brandywine simmers, men whisper of Eleanor's famed beauty, women listen enraptured to tales of Richard in the Holy Land, and troubadours fill the hall with song. We take our cue from England and France in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and the holiday traditions of that time. There will be caroling, roving entertainment, vendors, a game room, and European and Middle Eastern dancing in the evening.

Then join us the next morning for a rousing WAR practice at Bataan Park, exact time to be announced at a later date.

www.SCAbusiness.com is coming!!!

What Is SCAbusiness.com?

SCAbusiness.com will be a comprehensive, fully searchable database of businesses run by people in the SCA. The database will include all types of businesses, whether they are medieval or modern in nature. Database listings will be made inexpensive enough to be useful to even the smallest of businesses. The full Website will be up and running in October, 2004.

SCAbusiness.com will:

Provide a database of businesses run by people in the SCA, throughout the Known World

Provide a place to leave positive and negative feedback about those businesses

Provide a way to keep money within the SCA community

SCAbusiness.com's database will be fully searchable:

- By SCA or Mundane location
- By specialty—armorer, attorney, potter, plumber, bead worker, babysitter etc.
- By keyword (anything in the Business's self-description—once the Full Website goes live in October, the business will be able to edit this description at will, free of charge).

SCAbusiness.com is advertising:

- In every kingdom newsletter
- On relevant SCA lists and websites, including the SCA.org site
- In flyers like this one, posted around the Known World

Listings are available for as little as $5/month.

Businesses purchasing a one year listing prior to the time in October when the full Website is up and running will have their information posted on the interim, non-searchable SCAbusiness.com website (at www.SCAbusiness.com). The 1 year contract period will not begin until the full website goes live.

To get a listing:

check out www.SCAbusiness.com or send questions to Lsabron@cablerocket.com

Invitation to Hunter's Feast

Fine and fair the foodstuffs brought forth by our land - grains from the farmer, grown by hoe and hand, wild fruits found and gathered, or herdsman's slaughtered beast - but none can compare with our noble Hunter's Feast.

Oats and wheat are splendid for making bonny bread;
cabbages and turnips both help to keep us fed;
carrots, kale and onions of foods are not the least,
but only serve to garnish our noble Hunter's Feast.

Apples crisp and ruddy make pies and cider fine;
berries red and purple and grapes make splendid wine;
beer and mead make merry soldier, prince and priest - but these but serve to sweeten our noble Hunter's Feast.

Eggs and milk and cheeses, creamy, salt and sweet,
are excellent as staples and pleasant oft to eat;
chickens, ducks and peacocks are loved in west and east,
but still cannot compare with our noble Hunter's Feast.

Cow's meat for the Saxons, pig's meat for the Celts, mutton for the Normans, and goat's meat for all else - every clan and nation has each their favorite beast, but higher still they value our noble Hunter's Feast.

Salmon full of wisdom, antelope and hare, wildfowl from the marshes, deer and boar and bear - these make up our menu, so when my words have ceased come and join our company at our noble Hunter's Feast.

Earl Marshal's Office - Minister of the Lists

Greetings to the Outlands!

Well this letter I hope finds all well. WAR! is coming up and although I have not used much space in the OH this term, WAR! is important. Over the next 5 or so months, your MoL's will be hard at work letting you know every time you show them your cards (blue & green) if you need to be updated for WAR! Your local Fighter Marshal should be doing checks also, and the authorizing marshals should be sending updates to THL Seuilla, so that she can update the authorization list, if you re-up your membership, email her so she can check the SCA master list/Outlands master list and update it on the authorization list. Armor checks during practices will be becoming more strident, gearing everything towards being prepared for WAR! Check those straps! READ your handbook again – why ? – I read mine the other day and found MISTAKES! Melees, Melees, MELEES! Tournament season is winding down and practices should be gearing towards WAR! scenarios. Are your weapons ready? I personally am hoping to fight with al-Barran this year (and my two boys). When I am dead, I'll marshal (thank you Lord Brennian for the practical advice – I'll try it this year). I'll see you at the list table – have all your cards updated – the MoL's will be on a rampage (interesting mental image…papers flying, 3x5 cards in the air, one of the MoL's shaking a finger at a fighter) or on the field (yes Sir, please may I have another), and let's go kick some *ss at WAR!

Lady Danica Nemnjaviaea

Kingdom Seneschal's Office

Fellow Outlanders, a most festive of fall salutations to you all!

This month is one of my favorite of all the year. The days grow shorter and the trees become an artist's pallet of color. The wind whispers, the brooks babble and there is a mysterious flavor to the air. To better enjoy the season, I suggest taking some time to gather 'round the hearth with loved ones and dear friends to share a cup of mulled cider and tell ghost stories. Happy anniversary wishes to my favorite pumpkin!

Now that the weather is cooling and indoor activities are becoming more prevalent, it is important to better remember our courtesies to each other and to try and focus more on the positive aspects of one another than to dwell on the negative. We have two seasons to spend indoors with each other, folks, so let's work together in making the best of it! Speaking of working together, a personal note of thanks to the Baron and Baroness of al-Barran, THLord Ryan and THLady Tana and the al-Barran Seneschal, Master James David for their collective efforts in assisting Baroness Emma, Outlands Kingdom Chronicler, with the mailing of the September OH. Unfortunately, by the time at which you read this missive, their assistance will have long since been rendered. Nevertheless, the Outlandish Herald is a most valued resource of information and knowledge to this Kingdom and mention of their good deeds is deserved.

Having mentioned artists earlier in missive, I would like to encourage everyone to attend Queen's Prize Tournament that will be held in the Barony of Unser Hafen, later this month. Artists from across the realm will be gathering on this grand day to share their knowledge and explain their methods while vying for one of the greatest treasures to be had by any Outlander: The Queen's Prize! This most special of events will also be host to a rare and solemn occasion as Their Excellencies of Unser Hafen: Baron Deotrich and Baroness Leonora will be stepping down from their landed thrones and their successors: Sir Alexander and THLady Mardanah will invested by Their Majesties and endowed with The sacred trust of Their Barony. In all, Queen's Prize is truly an event not to missed!

One final thought before I share with you my tips/reminders and wish you all a most happy (if not haunted) October is to voice a word of caution regarding email over-dependency. Though emails and instant messages are a very useful and cheap means of communication, it should never be forgotten that a phone can be just as handy. Especially when computer mailboxes become full, systems go down and emails bounce. If you have something important to impart and the electronic message is not getting through, do not give up. Pick up the phone!

Tips/Reminders:
- Always relinquish a borrowed item, thankfully and without debate, when the lender asks for the item back.
- There should never be shame felt or insult conveyed when asking the current occupant of YOUR chair to move him or herself so you may use it. Remember this tip works both ways.
- Let no deed of true generosity or selflessness, go unnoticed!

In service to the Outlands and the Dream,

THL Roland O'Rourke

Earl Marshall's Office - Equestrian Marshall

Greetings equestrians!

More information on frequently asked questions, AUTHORIZATIONS:

All ground crew must become authorized. Authorization requirements are specific for beginner, intermediate, and advanced and include safely handling equipment and weapons, understanding the rules of the activities, and basic horse safety.

Riders also are authorized beginner, intermediate, and advanced. These levels require a rider to perform certain tasks while demonstrating control of their mount. Riders may also be asked to answer questions to demonstrate their knowledge of safety and the nature of the activities. Beginner level is at a walk only, intermediate is at a trot and advanced is performed at a canter. An advanced rider may ride at all three gaits.

It takes two marshals to authorize a marshal. This process includes a ridden, written, and oral exam. If the results are satisfactory to both marshals, then they will sign the equestrian card making the candidate a new marshal. Candidates must have an advanced authorization and have acted as an equestrian marshal in training for a recommended two years. Quiz questions are taken from the Society Equestrian Handbook, but oral questions may be from other areas of horsemanship.

Special authorization is required for mounted combat and jousting. Authorizations are valid for two years.

THL Lady Dubhessa

Herald's Office - White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

I pray this missive finds you all in the midst of a bountiful harvest, and that good fires warm your hearth and good friends your heart no matter how cold the winter winds blow.

You may be considering how to add some flavor or ambience to your table setting as we enter the winter feasting season. Now is a good time to consider the device or badge you have registered - table linens in your livery, sewn with your badge or embroidered with your achievement can help add a touch of richness when you sit down at an upcoming midwinter feast. If you have no registered armory of your own, remember that any subject of the Outlands may use the populace ensign, "Vert, a stag salient argent, attired and unguled, within a bordure embattled Or." Couples might consider a marshalled display of their armory. It is true that we do not register armory with the appearance of marshalling in the SCA, but there are many lovely period ways to do so in display, and such usage is encouraged.

One such way is by the inescutcheon of pretense, where the wife's arms would be placed on a small inescutcheon in the center of the husband's arms. This may need to be fimbriated to increase visibility.

Another way is the familiar quarterly version, where the husband's arms are in the first and fourth quarters (top left and bottom right), and the wife's are in the second and third quarters (top right and bottom left).

A third option is to take the left half of the husband's arms and the right half of the wife's arms and stick them together along the per pale line (vertical center). This can create a very interesting display, and does not work well with armory that shares a tincture along that line.

Aside from adding lovely atmosphere to events, your registered armory can be useful. A pennon flying at your campsite can tell people where to find you. Your badge painted on the side or bottom of your favorite cup can help ensure its return if left by the bardic fire. My lord husband crafted a lovely belt favor with his arms on it for our son, and he added a label to show the bearer was his son and heir. On the back of the favor, we have written our names, in case he gets lost at an event. Our young man was very excited to get to wear it the first time.

> "Hang out our banners on the outward walls;
> The cry is still, 'They come'; our castle's strength
> Will laugh a siege to scorn."
> Macbeth, V, v, 1
> – William Shakespeare

In hopes to see more lovely and stalwart display of armory, I remain,

Yours in service and in duty,

Lady Sorcha MacLeod

Ministry of Arts and Sciences - Arts and Sciences Officer

Unto the Artisans of the Outlands and those who support us in our endeavors do I send Greetings

Herein will I recount the story of Queens Prize.

At its heart, and of primary importance, this event is an opportunity for the Artisans of the Outlands of every degree to Amaze and Amuse our Beloved Queen with a display of our works. It is for this we gather, and it is for her to bestow her Prize as she wills.

The secondary purpose is as a gathering of artisans without the pressure and friction that comes with the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competitions. It should be an opportunity for artisans to gather together to encourage and support each other and to share our learning. It is an opportunity to receive feedback and constructive commentary so that we may each learn and grow in our art.

All artisans at every level and of any age are encouraged to participate. Items entered are not required to be complete but should be documented. Each artisan will be assigned a particular time at which they should be with their entry and available to those who offer discussion about it. Each artisan must have a sponsor, either a member of the Ancient and Honorable order of the Laurel, or a Lady of the Rose.

It is the sponsor's responsibility to register the artisan, to provide such support and encouragement as the artisan requires, and to make themselves available to offer commentary to other artisans. Each sponsor should bring one prize per artisan sponsored and such additional small tokens of appreciation as they feel appropriate. Each sponsor will be asked to comment on a minimum of as many artisans as they sponsor, possibly more as the administrative requirements of the event dictate. Please see the event announcement for the registration details.

I would like to strongly encourage those eligible to act as sponsors to consider the artisans in their local area and to seek out those who may be too shy to approach you, but who may be just the people who would most benefit from participating in this event.

Due to the interactive nature of this event, only those who are present to participate will be eligible to win Her Majesties Prize. Absentee displays will be permitted as space allows. No absentee sponsors will be permitted.

If you are having trouble finding a sponsor, I urge you to contact your local Arts and Sciences Minister for suggestions. If that doesn't help, please feel free to contact me directly.

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Good populace,

While reading the following press release from our corporate office, please know that both the Society and Kingdom take matters of this nature very seriously. One of the greatest measures taken to protect the youth of this organization is the creation of the Ministry of Children office. If you are not familiar with this office, I encourage you to obtain a copy of the Ministry of Children Handbook. This handbook is contained within the Kingdom Library section of the Outlands Kingdom website and is printer friendly. If you do not have electronic access, please speak with your local MoC officer or Seneschal to view a printed copy.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE- FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Tamara Griggs, Assistant VP for Media Relations, SCA, Inc.

On Behalf of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.

On August 23rd of 2004, Benjamin Schragger, of Weisenberg Township, PA, pled guilty but mentally ill to eleven criminal counts involving minors, including charges of child molestation. Some of these charges involved children he had met through the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.

Schragger, known in the SCA, Inc., as Lord Ben the Steward, held the positions of instructor and director of the Pages' School, a part of the Children's Activities in the East Kingdom Branch of the SCA, Inc., from 1999 through August of 2003.

The SCA, Inc., was shocked to learn of the allegations in the Fall of last year, remains deeply saddened by these tragic events and wishes to convey its sympathy to all those involved.

The SCA, Inc., will be taking all appropriate actions available under its governing documents and will avail itself of all measures designed to protect the SCA, Inc., membership and participants from known endangering influences.

The Directors of the SCA, Inc., have directed senior staff to ensure policies are in place regarding minor participation in Society activities. The Vice President for Operations is currently in the process of reviewing policies regarding minors and their involvement in sanctioned activities, and is committed to further strengthening and improving such policies with the goal of protecting our youth to the fullest extent possible.

As an organization, we make every attempt to ensure the safety of our children. Unfortunately, no set of policies, procedures or protocols can ever protect us completely. These steps underway at the highest levels of our organization will need to be matched by a thorough and constant vigilance by all members to protect all children, not only for ourselves, but for our Society.

Mr. Schragger was placed under suspension in November of 2003, pending the outcome of the allegations against him. This step was undertaken without prejudice. With his plea, the Directors will be pursuing a permanent revocation and denial of membership, to be undertaken at the September Conference call meeting on or about 9/8/04.

The Directors remind the SCA Membership and participants that our ceremonial officers (Crown, Royal family) are in NO WAY a substitute for modern authorities. When a modern law has been broken, or someone is in danger, the responsible action is to inform the Seneschal, and contact modern authorities.

The Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., is an international 501-3c not-for-profit corporation, with the aim of preserving the fine arts, arts martial, and chivalric ideals of the Middle Ages and Renaissance through participatory activity.

The SCA, Inc., is a volunteer-run organization, divided into groups by region/country/state, then by county, and further by city and/or college-campus. For the flavor of our activities, we use the conceit of calling these respectively Kingdoms, Baronies, and Shires/Marches/Cantons.

The SCA, Inc., welcomes and encourages family participation, and the active involvement of parents in family events.

Office of the Chronicler - Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings Outlanders,

This is the seventh issue of the OH that I have published, how time flies when you are having fun!

I would like to thank the Shire of Drygeston for graciously hosting an OH Fund Raising Breakfast at Lonely Mountain. The Shire raised $600.00 for the OH, thank you very much! The OH is always looking for donations and support, if you have any ideas, please contact me.

In addition, the OH is looking for artwork, cover art and small pieces that can be used inside. Currently I have one artist regularly sending in her works (THANK YOU!), but I know that there are more artists within this wonderful Kingdom.

If you are looking for some additional advertisement for your event, why not sponsor the OH cover. All you have to do is provide an electronic piece of artwork with a signed release along with your event article. If no one else has asked to sponsor the cover that month, it is all yours. Contact me for additional information.

Do you have suggestions for articles, formatting, or comments in general about the OH, please contact me at chronicler@outlands.org.

Happy Reading,

CHANGE: [Daly, Stephen] Change all references to "fighter practice" or "practice" to "marshal practice", with the exception of the mention of "practice" within XV. Policies of the Kingdom Chirurgeon F. 1.

F. It is the responsibility of the local Seneschal to ensure that all waivers from fighter practices and events are sent to the Kingdom Waiver Secretary within ten days following the activity.

Change to read:

F. It is the responsibility of the local Seneschal to ensure that all waivers from an event are sent to the Kingdom Waiver Secretary within ten days following the event. Waivers from a martial practices must be sent to the Kingdom Waiver Secretary within thirty days of the practice.

Current: IV Participation by Minors

A. Any minor attending an SCA event must have a Minor Waiver (see included form) completed and signed by his/her parent or legal guardian. A separate waiver is needed for each event the minor attends. This policy is in effect even if the minor is in attendance with his/her parent(s), and regardless of whether or not the minor is a paid SCA member. Roster waivers are not acceptable for use with minors. It is suggested that groups make copies of the minor waiver form on colored paper to easily distinguish them from adult waivers.
